CHOWIN JAM BOOKER FOR
BESSIE SMITH AND PAUL MOORE
THREE OTHER STAR ACTS

The Booker Washington Theatre looks all records for the year, Monday night, when it was necessary to give four good shows to satisfy the demand for admission. A combination of four feature acts is presenting one of the best vaudeville bills in the city at this time.

Bessie Smith and Paul Moore, the famous act, Miss Smith who has won fame as a record disc artist, is supported by a red hot band of seven pieces and a four piece band. With this selling she just about "put it over" on the "patrons" in her line. The act opens with a new, interesting item, the "Patrons" in her line. The act opens with a new, interesting item, the "Patrons" in her line. The act opens with a new, interesting item, the "Patrons" in her line.

"Second Edition" is the star's new number, and she is followed by a girl band who sing and dance. "Shy" is a new and interesting item. "Shy" is a new and interesting item. "Shy" is a new and interesting item. "Shy" is a new and interesting item.

The story tells briefly of the actions and passions of Dr. Gerald Sumner and his Jewish-American wife, when he is aided by Virginia Zerk, a strange nurse. As the romantic feelings between the physician and the stranger, so, in direct ratio, does the strongest element of the comedy play develop. Richard Barthelmene in "Shore Lovers" will be the Sunday feature.

THEATRES-CONTINUED

Dorothy Mackail is the girl in this picture who falls in love with a very jolly and dainty man around the world, not knowing his name. The complications are rendered as well as furnishing many thrills.

Dorothy Mackail and Cullen Landie are the stars in "Enemy of Men," on Monday.

"Three Keys" will be one of the Tuesday features. Edith Roberts, Jack Marshall and Virginia Lee Corbin are stars in this mystery drama with a novel plot. Bill Cody will also be seen in a Western "Love On The Rio Grande."

Alma Rubens and Percy Marmont are the stars in "A Woman's Faith" on Wednesday, and Lewis Stone with Alma Rubens in "Fine Clothes" on Thursday.

The Olympia

Milton Sills will be seen in "The Knockout" at the Olympia Theatre this Saturday and Sunday. Romance, heart, interest, comedy and thrills are all combined in this story of two and a half millionaires. It reveals a modern "Grieklandian" type of people who goes into the big money country to recuperate from an injury he experiences adventures that make his life a career seem more like a game.

Robert Frazee in "Love's Lane" will be the Monday special. The story deals with a country doctor who, in his desire to devote his career to a life of service, has had to give up the girl he loves. The girl believing that the pleasures of metropolitan life will be sufficient recompense for the loss of her sweetheart, Mr. Tom, soon finds out that happiness lies in love and service, not in vain pleasures.

Cullen Landie and Dorothy Mackail in "Enemy of Men" on Thursday and Wednesday; Cullen Landie and Dorothy Mackail in "Enemy of Men" on Thursday and Wednesday; Cullen Landie and Dorothy Mackail in "Enemy of Men" on Thursday and Wednesday.

Both "Enemy of Men" and "A Woman's Faith" are both extraordinary attractions.

The Casino

Edith Roberts will be the feature at the Casino Theatre on Saturday. A young millionaire in the police force is in love with a girl who is the daughter of a big business man. The tale is the fight on the part of Edith to save his friend from ruin at the hands of the girl's father.
